1

look forward to

DEF

To feel pleased or excited about something expected in the future.

The expression is followed by a noun or an -ing form, not a base verb.

I look forward to our meeting.

I look forward to seeing you next week.

2

hear from someone

DEF

To receive a message, reply or news from someone.

Focuses on the person who sends a response, not the topic of the news.

I look forward to hearing from you.

We hope to hear from the team tomorrow.

3

leave out

DEF

To omit something rather than include it.

A pronoun goes between leave and out, as in leave it out.

The short form leaves out I am.

You can leave out the address if your friend already knows it.
