FSE005 - Vocabulary and Grammar

Keep this page visible while you study. Turn the page before checking the answers.

Vocabulary

Word or phrase	Meaning	Everyday example
note	a small piece of paper with information	Write the address on a note.
interview	a meeting about a job	Her interview is on Monday.
folder	a cover that holds papers	My folder is in my bag.
again	one more time	Please say your name again.
right?	used to check information	The class starts at ten, right?

Grammar and pronunciation

Polite request: Could you + verb ...? Example: Could you say that again?
Time: use at with a clock time: at nine o’clock.
Checking: say “Nine, right?” with a rising voice at the end.

Practice - do not look at the answers yet

1. What does Maya have tomorrow?

2. Which number does Maya hear?

3. Which number can the note look like?

4. Complete: Could you say the time ___, please?

5. Complete: The interview is ___ nine o’clock.

6. Is “Nine, right?” a statement or a check?

7. When is the interview?

8. Complete: I ___ now.

9. What does a folder hold?

10. Where is Maya’s folder not?

Answers

Now check your work. Read each complete answer aloud once.

1. What does Maya have tomorrow?
An interview.

2. Which number does Maya hear?
Nine.

3. Which number can the note look like?
Six.

4. Complete: Could you say the time ___, please?
again

5. Complete: The interview is ___ nine o’clock.
at

6. Is “Nine, right?” a statement or a check?
A check.

7. When is the interview?
Tomorrow morning.

8. Complete: I ___ now.
understand

9. What does a folder hold?
Important papers.

10. Where is Maya’s folder not?
In her bag.

Quick review

Useful sentence: Could you say the time again, please?
Grammar: at nine o’clock
Pronunciation: Nine, right? - let your voice rise at the end.